Contents

Dedication  ................................................................. ix

Introduction  ............................................................... xi
BY PATRICIA C. MARTIN

PART I  Crisis Management in Program Planning

Chapter 1  Planning and Promoting Safe Programs Abroad  .............. 3
BY JOANNA HOLVEY-BOWLES
  Safety Considerations in Planning Programs Abroad  .................. 3
  Student Demographics  ................................................... 7
  Discussing Safety with Students  ........................................ 8
  Risky Behavior and Student Conduct Issues  ........................... 9
  Risk Assessment and Mitigation  ........................................ 11
  Sources of Safety and Security Information Beyond the Office  .... 12
  Education Abroad Providers and Organizations  ....................... 14
  Training Options for Staff and Faculty  ................................ 14
  Using Technology in Program Planning  ................................ 17
  Employee Travel on Education Abroad Programs  ...................... 18
  Conclusion  ................................................................. 19
  Resources  .................................................................. 20
Table of Contents

Chapter 2
Assessing and Mitigating Education Abroad Risks
BY JOSEPH L. BROCKINGTON

Types of Risk in Education Abroad .................................. 24
Identifying Hazards and Bias ........................................ 25
Dealing with Perceived High Risk ..................................... 26
The Subjective Factor .................................................... 27
Talking with an Institution about Risk ................................ 28
Talking with an Institution about Risk in Other Countries .......... 28
Risk Mitigation .............................................................. 29
Statistics and Risk Assessment/Risk Mitigation ....................... 31
Country Risk Assessments ................................................. 32
Enterprise Risk Management ............................................. 33
Practical Guidance on Assessment and Mitigation of Risk in Education Abroad .................................................... 33
Additional Checklist Resources .......................................... 36
Resources .................................................................. 36

PART II
Crisis Planning and Response

Chapter 3
Crisis Planning ................................................................. 41
BY STACEY BOLTON TSANTIR AND INÉS DE ROMAÑA

Follow Best Practices and Use Available Resources ................. 44
The Crisis Management Team .............................................. 45
The Plan ..................................................................... 46
Implementing the Plan ....................................................... 58
Conclusion .................................................................. 59
References .................................................................. 59

Chapter 4
Responding to Crises .......................................................... 61
BY STACEY BOLTON TSANTIR AND INÉS DE ROMAÑA

Is It an Emergency or a Crisis? ............................................. 61
Responding to Individuals in Crisis Situations ............................ 62
Responding to Crises Impacting Large Groups or the Entire Program ...... 82

© 2017 by NAFSA. All rights reserved.
Chapter 4 (continued)

Conclusion ................................................................. 87
References ................................................................. 88
Resources ................................................................. 89

Chapter 5  When a Student Dies Abroad:
Preparing for the Ultimate Tragedy ................................. 91
BY JULIE ANNE FRIEND

General International Emergency Preparedness .................. 91
Death Notification ......................................................... 94
Pastoral Care to Students, Families, and the Campus Community 96
Follow-up Care ............................................................ 99
A Compassionate Approach ............................................ 99
International Crisis Management Team: Represented Offices . 100
Communications with Campus Unit Stakeholders .................. 101

PART III  Issues of Liability

Chapter 6  Education Abroad and the Evolving Regulatory Landscape ...... 109
BY JULIE ANNE FRIEND

Fundamental Legal Concepts ........................................... 110
Education Abroad Tragedies Spark Political and Media Interests .......... 114
Resources ................................................................. 119

Chapter 7  Mitigating Organizational Liability:
A Review of U.S. Case Law and Regulations ........................ 121
BY JULIE ANNE FRIEND

Torts: Duty and Negligence ............................................. 121
Release Agreements ....................................................... 130
Federal Statutes ........................................................... 138
Conclusion ................................................................. 152
Resources ................................................................. 156

© 2017 by NAFSA. All rights reserved.
Chapter 8
Insurance for Crisis Management ........................................... 159
BY PATRICIA C. MARTIN

*Risk Assessment and Insurance Needs for Program Providers .................. 159
Insurance for Program Participants ............................................. 161
Institutional Insurance Provisions .................................................. 164
The Role of Assistance Providers ..................................................... 166
Questions/Scenarios to Explore When Reviewing Insurance Options .......... 167
Checklists for Insurance Provisions ............................................... 168
References ....................................................................................... 172

About the Authors

© 2017 by NAFSA. All rights reserved.