Network NAFSA

Go to: network.nafsa.org

1. Click on "Communities"

2. Click on "Regional Networks"

The screenshot shows the NAFSA Network website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "CONTACT US", "CODE OF CONDUCT", and "NAFSA.ORG". Below this is a main header with the NAFSA logo and the tagline "Connecting People. Changing the World™". A large navigation menu is visible, with "COMMUNITIES" highlighted. The "COMMUNITIES" dropdown menu includes options: "MY COMMUNITIES", "ALL COMMUNITIES", "MEMBER INTEREST GROUPS", "REGIONAL NETWORKS", "PROFESSIONAL NETWORKS", and "GENERAL INTEREST". A "Connect now" button is prominently displayed. Below the navigation menu, there are three main content sections: "LATEST DISCUSSIONS", "RECENT BLOGS", and "MOST ACTIVE USERS".

Welcome to the Region X Listserv and Network Site!

This website is designed for Region X members to share ideas and collaborate to further international education in New York, New Jersey, and across NAFSA. As Region X has a long history rich with leadership, programmatic initiatives, enthusiasm, friends, and a reputation for excellence, this Network site is restricted to NAFSA Region X business, or any other open discussion of issues in international education. Please note that no direct or indirect advertising will be allowed. Companies, institutions, or individuals may apply to the region's marketing/development representative for information on policies and cost of advertising to the regional membership via other means.

Your Region X team welcomes you to our Network, and we look forward to many productive discussions.

Code of Conduct

Network.NAFSA Community Rules and Etiquette

Thank you for being part of Network.NAFSA. To ensure the best possible experience for all members, we have established some basic guidelines for participation. By joining and using any community within Network.NAFSA, you agree that you have read and will follow these rules and guidelines. You also agree to post only discussions, shared files, and content that is best suited to the medium. Network.NAFSA is a great platform to solicit the advice of your peers, benefit from their experience, and participate in an ongoing conversation. Questions should be directed to our Web Master via the Contact Us link on this site. Please take a moment to acquaint yourself with these important guidelines. In order to preserve a climate that encourages both civil and fruitful dialogue, we reserve the right to suspend or terminate participation in Network.NAFSA for anyone who violates these rules.

The Rules

- Discussions and comments should be appropriate to the forum, respectful in tone, and free of personal attacks. Do not challenge another member's identity, gender, race, or religion.
- Do not post commercial messages in any discussion thread, community, resource library entry, or other area where others might see it.
 - This includes, but is not limited to, endorsements, advertisements, or promotion of products or services not affiliated with NAFSA.
- Use caution when disclosing proprietary information. The community is not responsible for all content posted and is subject to federal, state, and anti-trust laws.
- All defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal materials are strictly prohibited. Do not post anything that you do not want the world to know or that you would not want anyone to know came from you.
- Do not post any information or other material protected by copyright without the permission of the copyright owner. Please note carefully all items listed in the disclaimer and legal rules below.

Please be sure to read NAFSA's
 "Code of Conduct" page HERE
