

NAFSA

GLOBAL LEARNING

colloquia

AT NAFSA 2015

MAY 26-29, 2015
BOSTON, MA USA

NAFSA's Support for Teacher Education

- Supporting the preparation of globally competent teachers
 - Serve as a catalyst to deans and faculty to encourage global learning in curricula and programs
 - Provide a venue for review, discussion, and exchange of information about model practices
 - Stimulate research to define, assess, and support global competence
 - Offer strategies, model practice, tactics, and resources
 - Build a community of practice dedicated to preparing globally competent teachers

Programs for Faculty and Deans

- Annual Colloquia since 2009
- Online Faculty Conversations on Global Learning
- New topics and leaders each year
- Send us your ideas for future programs:
faculty@nafsa.org

Cultural Awareness Profile

My Cultural Awareness Profile

Co-developer Dr. David Moss, University of Connecticut, will discuss the new normed instrument at lunch today.

Just Completed!

➤ InTASC Model Core Teaching Standards through a Global Preparation Lens

www.nafsa.org/globalpreparationlens

- Annotations and additions to highlight elements of global competence in the 2011 CCSSO Framework
- Co-author Joanne Arhar, Kent State University, will lead a breakout group this morning
- Sample in your packets
- Thanks to the Longview Foundation for their support of this work!

Resources for Teacher Education

- www.nafsa.org/teachered
 - PowerPoints
 - Papers
 - Events

- Please share your ideas and questions on the LinkedIn Group:
Preparing Globally Competent Teachers

Jointly sponsored by Global Teacher Education, The Longview Foundation, and NAFSA