

Comprehensive Internationalization: Vision and Practice

NAFSA 2012 ANNUAL CONFERENCE & EXPO

MAY 27-JUNE 1, 2012 • HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA • GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER

Developing Action Plans for Impact

David M. Moss
Neag School of Education
University of Connecticut

Action Planning for Impact

A network of colleagues

NEXT STEPS for when you return to your home institution

Action Planning for Impact

No single means of “going global”

Numerous “points of entry”

Building upon our strengths

Everyone starts where they are...

Action Planning for Impact

Networking Time...

Curriculum/Program Design

Faculty Professional Learning/Scholarship

Partnerships/Exchanges/Study Abroad

Technology

Action Planning for Impact

Strategic Planning

Things we do now versus long term planning

Action Planning for Impact

Consider what IMPACT means for you...

What are your most urgent needs regarding your future work at your host institutions?

Action Planning for Impact

5-10 minutes at our tables

“Next Steps”

Action Planning for Impact

How will you know you are successful?

For each “next step” consider the evidence & timeline

which will reveal your potential impact

Action Planning for Impact

5-10 minutes at our tables

“Evidence of Impact”

(Include evidence & timeline)

Action Planning for Impact

SHARING THE WORD

Share your ideas from this colloquium with others...

- On your home campus or via an online network
- Refining or developing new courses for pre-service teachers
- Making a presentation at your state education organization
- Writing an essay or article
- Posting a blog about globally competent education

Questions?

What do we still need to address?

Action Planning for Impact

Additional NAFSA Session Today!

Internationalizing Teacher Education:
Exploring Essential Elements of U.S. Teacher Education

2:00 – 3:15

Hilton Americas Room 337AB