

Welcome!

- Remember, audio is through your computer speakers; you do not need to dial in.
- Please, turn off your microphone if you have one built into your computer.
- Use the chat box to tell us what college, university, or organization you are with and how many people are watching with you.
- Questions will be accepted via the chat box.
- A recorded version of this presentation will be available on the NAFSA website at www.nafsa.org/governmentconnection

Extreme Vetting and Visa Revocations

Presenters: Dan Berger, Curran & Berger LLP

David Strashnoy, Stone Grzegorek & Gonzalez LLP

Moderated by: Marie Willard, University of Arizona

Nusha Shishegar, Keck Graduate Institute

June 20, 2018

Extreme Vetting: What Is It?

What is extreme vetting and how does it tie into normal administrative processing procedures? Can you explain the general process and timeline surrounding administrative processing?

Extreme Vetting: What Is It?

What is extreme vetting and how does it tie into normal administrative processing procedures? Can you explain the general process and timeline surrounding administrative processing?

Call to Action:
IssueNet Reports!

— Visa Revocations: How and Why?

What in the INA allows for visa revocations, and under what terms?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

What in the INA allows for visa revocations, and under what terms?

What's the impact of a visa revocation due to TOEFL malpractice (or any other kind of cheating or fraud) on a student's future visa application? Is there any method by which consular officers even become aware of these more "internal" matters (i.e., admission revocations)?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

What in the INA allows for visa revocations, and under what terms?

What's the impact of a visa revocation due to TOEFL malpractice (or any other kind of cheating or fraud) on a student's future visa application? Is there any method by which consular officers even become aware of these more "internal" matters (i.e. admission revocations)?

What reasons are the most common reasons that visas are revoked? Please explain the difference between a provisional and prudential visa revocations. Are there any other circumstances besides a DUI that would result in a prudential revocation?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

What in the INA allows for visa revocations, and under what terms?

What's the impact of a visa revocation due to TOEFL malpractice (or any other kind of cheating or fraud) on a student's future visa application? Is there any method by which consular officers even become aware of these more "internal" matters (i.e. admission revocations)?

What reasons are the most common reasons that visas are revoked? Please explain the difference between a provisional and prudential visa revocations. Are there any other circumstances besides a DUI that would result in a prudential revocation?

How do criminal charges come into play? Why do some criminal charges lead to revocation and not others?

— Visa Revocations: How and Why?

If a student possesses both a valid F and B visa, are both visas revoked? Are any other visa types previously issued automatically revoked?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

If a student possesses both a valid F and B visa, are both visas revoked? Are any other visa types previously issued automatically revoked?

Where can students check to see if their visas have been revoked if they no longer have access to the email used when filing the DS-160?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

If a student possesses both a valid F and B visa, are both visas revoked? Are any other visa types previously issued automatically revoked?

Where can students check to see if their visas have been revoked if they no longer have access to the email used when filing the DS-160?

Are DSOs or schools notified when visas are revoked, and how? What is expected of DSOs once notified of the revocation? How can DSOs best assist their students in these cases?

Visa Revocations: How and Why?

If a student possesses both a valid F and B visa, are both visas revoked? Are any other visa types previously issued automatically revoked?

Where can students check to see if their visas have been revoked if they no longer have access to the email used when filing the DS-160?

Are DSOs or schools notified when visas are revoked, and how? What is expected of DSOs once notified of the revocation? How can DSOs best assist their students in these cases?

Do you have suggestions for best practices on how to educate international students, scholars, and faculty on how their actions could result in visa revocation?

—

Visa Revocations: Applying For New Visas

How soon should a student apply for a renewal after revocation? And will the process differ depending on the reason for the revocation?

Visa Revocations: Applying For New Visas

How soon should a student apply for a renewal after revocation? And will the process differ depending on the reason for the revocation?

What are the chances of an F-1 visa being approved if a previous visa was revoked or cancelled? Are letters of support from DSOs considered or taken into account when reapplying?

Questions from the Audience

Please type your questions into the chat box. We will get to as many questions as possible!
