

*Transcending Boundaries to Build a Global Civil Society:
The Role of International Education*

THE NAFSA RON MOFFATT
SEMINAR on

May 30-June 1, 2014
San Diego, CA, USA

PEACE and the
GLOBAL CIVIL SOCIETY

1. What major concepts from this weekend's discussions are the most compelling for you as you contemplate your future work as an international educator?

1.A What areas of your work and life do you think will change as a result of your learning this weekend?

2. What would you like students/scholars you work with to learn about peace, justice, and the global civil society in the programs you lead or the courses you teach?

2.A What types of experiences for students/scholars could lead to the learning you outlined above?

3. What resources will you need to provide those experiences? (Intellectual, financial, curricular support, approvals, assistance--from whom? etc.)

3.A What hurdles, if any, do you foresee that will need to be overcome?

4. Who are some likely allies for this work on campus and/or in your community? How might they assist you in providing these experiences?

5. With whom do you want to discuss these ideas when you return home?

Please fill out this page and give to Susan Thompson.

Thank you!

Your name _____
What resources or support from your colleagues in this seminar would you like to have after you return home?
How can you be of help to your colleagues in this seminar in future? What resources, contacts, strategies or materials can you share?
What one thing do you plan to implement?
In what month will you complete this? _____
What was the highlight of this seminar for you?
What would you like to see discussed next year at the NAFSA Ron Moffatt Seminar?

