How can we keep moving forward on internationalizing teacher education curricula?

NAFSA: Association of International Educators is the world's largest nonprofit association dedicated to international education. NAFSA serves its members, their institutions and organizations, and others engaged in international education and exchange and global workforce development. NAFSA sets standards of good practice; provides training, professional development, and networking opportunities; and advocates for international education. For more information about NAFSA, the NAFSA annual conference, or membership, visit www.nafsa.org or call 202.737.3699

NAFSA is grateful to the Longview Foundation, the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), and the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education (NAFEO) for their support of this colloquium.
