

Sally and Steve O'Neill enjoy playing traditional music in the Bozeman area. They are founding members of the Bebe LeBoeuf Cajun band which performs statewide and was recently featured on the Montana PBS 11th and Grant show. Between the two of them, they play fiddle, banjo, guitar, accordion and bass as well as sing. They specialize in lively Old-time and Cajun, but play Swing, Western and Spanish music as well. Their shared passion for the music is evident when they perform, whether as a duo or a full band.
