

Type	Title	Description
ISS	Reg Bud Update	Updates from the Region 6 Reg Bud Mary Upton- IUPUI With Sam Lockhart, SEVP Field Rep
General	BMV	Steven Leaks - answering submitted questions, or other BMV updates
Advocacy	Advocating for International Education	advocacy programs and initiatives, followed by an open discussion about advocating for international education
ISS	From Enrollment to Arrival: Best Practices for Preparing New International Students	Communication with incoming international students is important, both to promote a smooth transition to the U.S. and to ensure that students are fully prepared to succeed at their new institution. Combining current
ISS	Details matter: liabilities of inconsistency and implications for the future in immigration applications	Did you keep a copy! What address did you use? How did you answer that? All are good questions. In the era of technology, we assume that all things are known to all entities. Accordingly, consistency and "truthfulness" are key
ISS	Open Roundtable Discussions for Community College/ 2-year Institutions International Educators.	professionals in international education in roundtable discussions on topics unique to community college/ 2-year schools. Network, discuss or share your thoughts and concerns with others on we will explore and discuss the non-
ISS	U.S. Immigration: Recruiting and Retaining Foreign Faculty and Staff	immigrant, temporary visa categories available to foreign faculty and staff, as well as sponsorship for permanent residence. Special attention will be given to the unique requirements associated with Special Handling rules
General	Purdue University, International Integration Initiative (P3i)	a comprehensive strategy that seeks to integrate international students into all aspects of campus life and prepares them to engage in meaningful interaction with their American classmates, faculty and community.

General	Advising DACAmented and Undocumented Students: Promoting Academic Success through Institutional Support Services and Community Partnerships	A discussion to understand which students may fall into these categories and the implications for admissions and international student support services. Learn about DACA/DAPA eligibility and legal requirements; in-state tuition update for Indiana; and scholarships and financial aid. College administrators should be aware that these student populations face unique
General	The GA Journey: The Roles and Benefits of Implementing Graduate Assistants in Your Office	Indiana University Bloomington's Office of International Services hires graduate assistants to diversify its staff and enhance its work with clients and campus partners. Using examples from our experiences as GAs, we discuss the multiple hats
TLS	Benefits of Using L1 Peer Mentors with L2 Students	Discusses the outcomes of using experienced students as peer mentors for beginning ESL students in a language learning center housed at a university. A pilot program is discussed along with a more formalized, follow-
TLS	Making the Grade: Preparing IEP Students for Success	many international students study in Intensive English Programs prior to their studies, but are they academically prepared afterwards? This interactive presentation will discuss early use of Blackboard software and sheltered
EA	Diversity & Inclusion in Education Abroad: Moving Beyond a Luxury Good	luxury afforded to the upper middle-class and widely pursued by white women. This session will provide tangible examples of innovative practices to diversify participant demographics and program offerings in
EA	Advising for Cuba and other locations off the Beaten Path	Cuba is an inviting study destination. Whether there a week or a year, students learn a great deal about themselves and Cuba. What kinds of students should go to Cuba? How is preparing them different from
EA, TLS, IEL	Writing While Walking? Really?! Strategies for Meeting Academic Requirements -- Around the Globe -- And on the GO!	Institutions frequently have academic requirements that are designed for an on-campus curriculum, and are quite difficult to meet in off-campus programs. Using writing across the

EA	Supercharging Study Abroad	This session is an overview of Purdue's study abroad orientation "bonus" workshop - Supercharging Your Study Abroad. This workshop has two parts, a pre-departure workshop and a re-entry workshop. The pre-departure workshop offers suggestions and recommendations for
----	----------------------------	---