

NAFSA SESSION PROPOSAL RUBRIC

	1	2	3	4	5
How well do the title, abstract, and learning objectives align with each other?	There is no alignment, or it is not clear	There is an alignment, but it was not successfully conveyed	Alignment is clear but language needs refinement	They align, and proposal uses language that effectively conveys session content and goals	Proposal uses language that accurately and clearly conveys the complex relationships between title, abstract, and objectives
Are the format and delivery methods selected appropriate for participants to achieve the stated learning objectives and audience engagement?	They are inappropriate or not clear	They may be appropriate, but the proposal does not convey how the format and delivery method will help participants meet learning objectives	They are appropriate and have the potential to achieve some of the objectives	They are appropriate and will help achieve all of the learning objectives	Not only are they appropriate, but the format and delivery methods selected are uniquely suited to achieve and possibly exceed the learning objectives
Is the presenter(s) knowledgeable in the topic area?	There is no evidence to support that the presenter(s) is knowledgeable in the topic area	There is some indication that the presenter(s) are knowledgeable in the topic area	The presenter(s) is sufficiently knowledgeable	The presenter(s) is very knowledgeable in the topic area	The presenter(s) has the ideal background and experience to present on this topic

NAFSA SESSION PROPOSAL RUBRIC

	1	2	3	4	5
Given the limited number of slots for sessions and the high volume of proposals received, how likely is it you would attend or recommend someone to attend this session if placed in the program?	I would not attend or recommend it	I would probably not attend or recommend it	Neither likely nor unlikely that I would attend or recommend it	I would likely attend or recommend it	I would very likely attend or recommend it
From your perspective, does this proposal introduce an innovative point of view or approach that adds something new to the conversation or practices within the field?	Yes	No	Note: The NAFSA Annual Conference Committee encourages proposals that reflect a forward-looking approach, feature bold ideas and global perspectives, and connect to the conference theme. In addition to the criteria above, we ask reviewers to consider and comment on the balance and variety of perspectives featured on the proposal. This includes different institutional types, professional roles, or geographic locations.		