PLENARIES

On May 30 and June 1, international educators from across the world gather for two unforgettable plenaries that celebrate the storied history of the association and to reimagine the future of international education. For 75 years, NAFSA has convened the most notable and relevant voices at its annual conferences, and this year is no exception. Attend this year's plenaries, where speakers share new insights and perspectives, connect diverse topics to the mission of international education, and inspire a renewed vision for the years ahead.

SPOTLIGHT PRESENTERS

NAFSA 2023 Spotlight Presenters are changemakers who are reshaping the world through their work. Join these engaging presentations to hear moving stories and inspiring perspectives on inclusivity, leadership, social justice, advocacy, sustainability, wellness, and more.

SYMPOSIUM ON LEADERSHIP:

Decolonization, Indigenization, and International Education

The International Education Leadership Knowledge Community presents the Symposium on Leadership for senior international officers and campus internationalization leaders. As a platform for global voices working together to inspire an inclusive future, the 2023 Symposium considers how to deconstruct practices of institutional racism and xenophobia that can lead to the disenfranchising of individuals and communities at the margins of influence, resources, privilege and/or those experiencing social exclusion by people in power.

LATIN AMERICA AND CARIBBEAN FORUM

The Latin America and Caribbean Forum highlights innovative international higher education practices in Latin America and the Caribbean. Join higher education leaders from throughout the region who provide insights on developing effective and sustainable partnerships through collaborative networks.

SEVEN THINGS TO DO DURING YOUR TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

- 1 Explore U.S. history and enjoy D.C.'s iconic architecture by visiting the U.S. Capitol, Library of Congress, National Mall, the White House, and other historic buildings, monuments, and memorials.
- 2 Immerse yourself in culture at any of the 17 free Smithsonian museums in the area and other world-class museums and galleries. Catch a performance at the Kennedy Center, the Anthem, Howard Theater, the 9:30 Club, and many other concert and theater venues.
- 3 Discover eclectic cuisines from around the world at one of the city's nationally recognized restaurants. Whether you're looking for fast-casual or Michelin-starred fare, D.C. has it all!
- 4 Venture off the beaten path and explore the city's historic and diverse neighborhoods, including the Wharf, U Street, Georgetown, and Capitol Hill. Navigate the city however you prefer—take advantage of D.C.'s walkable streets, bike and scooter rentals, and an easily navigable metro transit system.
- 5 Stretch your legs with a walk in Rock Creek Park, the National Zoo, or the U.S. Botanic Garden.
- 6 Enjoy shopping at City Center, Eastern Market, Georgetown, or Old Town Alexandria.
- 7 Cross the Potomac River to enjoy Virginia: Visit Arlington Cemetery, the Pentagon, George Washington's Mount Vernon, and more.

WELCOME TO WASHINGTON, D.C.!

NAFSA is pleased to host its 75th annual conference in Washington, D.C., one of the most exciting cities to visit and the association's hometown.

NAFSA 2023 HOTELS

NAFSA encourages all attendees to reserve a hotel room within the official conference hotel accommodations block. Your comfort, convenience, and safety are our priorities. To that end, NAFSA has secured high-quality accommodations at top properties in the heart of Washington. NAFSA hotel accommodations open on March 1 at 12:00 p.m. (EST). Book your hotel room within NAFSA's official hotel accommodations block to ensure your best experience! Attendees who book rooms in NAFSA's block receive the following exclusive benefits: quality accommodations at a reasonable, prenegotiated rate; access to NAFSA's hotel accommodations customer service; and more opportunities to network with other conference attendees. Rooms are available for a variety of budgets, and all hotels are within walking distance to the Walter E. Washington Convention Center.

Orchid Events is the official hotel accommodations provider for the NAFSA 2023 Annual Conference & Expo. Solicitations of hotel reservations from any company other than Orchid Events is not approved by NAFSA.

Learn more about hotel accommodations at www.nafsa.org/2023hotels.

NAFSA 2023 HEALTH AND SAFETY

The safety of all attendees, exhibitors, sponsors, and event staff at the annual conference is NAFSA's top priority. NAFSA follows guidelines from state and local authorities, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the World Health Organization (WHO).

REGISTRATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By registering for this event, you agree to the collection of contact and demographic information in accordance with NAFSA's Privacy Policy. This includes any information unique to you that is available in the individual's NAFSA profile. NAFSA will share limited information (name, title, organization, state, and country) in the official attendee list. NAFSA may further share your contact information according to your selected "Communication Preferences" in your MyNAFSA and in accordance with NAFSA's Privacy Policy.

Your data will be collected and utilized for NAFSA: Association of International Educators, organizer of this event, to allow your access to the event as well as its digital platform, CadmiumCD. Additionally, you agree to the sharing of your contact information with the trainers, coaches, and other program participants for the purpose of fulfilling the program for which you have registered. As a condition to participation, attendees consent to be recorded.

HEALTH AND SAFETY:

NAFSA follows COVID-19 safety protocols as required by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the World Health Organization, and the local ordinances of the District of Columbia, which currently do not require proof of vaccination or masking. Should the mandates change, NAFSA reserves the right to adjust conference attendance policies accordingly.

NAFSA strongly encourages COVID-19 vaccination and boosters, as vaccines are recommended as a proven way to prevent the threat of critical illness. Many attendees may still choose to wear masks indoors, and we ask that all attendees respect those who elect to do so. NAFSA recommends attendees self-test before leaving home for the conference. If you feel ill on-site, please remain in your hotel room and test to determine your health status.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

NAFSA is dedicated to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, or religion. NAFSA does not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience, including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Sexual language and imagery are not appropriate for the conference. Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the conference at the sole discretion of NAFSA's management team.
