Assisting individuals and employers in resolving problems with USCIS

October 15, 2020
Reminders Before We Begin
When things go wrong

- Attempted to resolve with USCIS?
- What documentation do they have to prove their claim?
- Recommend
  - Document, document, document!
  - When mailing document, always send by courier/service with tracking information
Independent, confidential, and impartial, the Ombudsman’s Office is not part of USCIS.

- Assists with individual requests for assistance.
- Issues recommendations to USCIS, including an Annual Report to Congress, proposing solutions related the delivery of immigration benefits.
- Hosts conferences, listening sessions, and meetings to address stakeholder concerns.
- Meets with federal agencies to foster interagency cooperation on a variety of immigration issues.
The Ombudsman Can Help With:

- Cases past processing times
- USCIS’ failure to schedule appointments, interviews, oath ceremonies, etc.
- Improper rejections, lost/transferred files, mailing issues
- Clear errors of fact or misapplication of law
- Ongoing, systemic issues
The Ombudsman CANNOT

- Communicate with anyone but the applicant/petitioner or attorney about a case, without written permission. The applicant/petitioner must submit case inquiry to our office.

- Compel USCIS to take action on a pending application/petition.

- Rectify actions resulting from bad information given by attorneys or DSOs.

- Engage on issues that are solely in the purview of another government Dept.

How we process cases

This time range is how long it is taking USCIS to process your case from the date we received it. We generally process cases in the order we receive them, and we will update this page each month. The estimated time range displayed is based on data captured approximately two months prior to updating the page. Please note that times may change without prior notice.

We have posted a “Receipt date for a case inquiry” in the table below to show when you can inquire about your case. If your receipt date is before the “Receipt date for a case inquiry”, you can submit an “outside normal processing time” service request online.
