

NAFSA Annual Conference Poster Review Rubric

Type	Question	1	2	3	4	5
All	Is the topic appropriate for a poster format?	This proposal's topic is inappropriate or not clear.	The topic may be appropriate, but the proposal does not effectively convey how the format and delivery method will help participants meet learning objectives.	The topic is appropriate and has the potential to achieve some of the objectives.	The topic is appropriate and will achieve all objectives and is ideally formatted as a poster presentation.	Not only is the topic appropriate, but the format selected is well suited to achieve, and possibly exceed, the objectives.
Posters Only	Will this poster be of interest to the audience for this fair? Note: themes are listed on our website.	This proposal is not about the theme selected at all.	The proposal may be about the theme but it isn't innovative, exciting, or have a specific reason it should be accepted.	The proposal has basic demonstration of the theme it represents.	The topic covers interesting topics for people in the field and gives the attendees a reason to stop at the fair.	Not only is the proposal exceptional at demonstrating the theme, but it also allows attendees to feel like they will learn something new or think critically about the theme.
Tech Fair Only	Does this proposal demonstrate a clear use of technology and/or social media? This fair's format is different than typical a poster fairs, so the focus of the presentation will be the technology, not a poster display.	This proposal will not demonstrate any technology.	The proposal may be demonstrating technology, but it does not seem like it would engage attendees.	The proposal has basic demonstration of the technology it represents.	The topic covers interesting technology for people in the field and gives the attendees a reason to stop at the fair.	Not only is the proposal exceptional at demonstrating the technology, but it also allows attendees to feel like they will learn something new.
All	NAFSA education programs at the annual conference are learning experiences and are noncommercial. Under no circumstances should a preconference workshop, general conference session, or poster presentation be used for promotion of a speaker's product, service, or other self-interest. Does this proposal violate this presenter policy?				Yes	No