Connect & Network

When international education professionals connect, they create powerful communities of learning. NAFSA works to support these communities by providing a wide array of opportunities to share knowledge, build relationships, and advance the profession.

Find the community that is right for you and start building connections that will boost your career and increase your profile in the field.

Networking with NAFSA

<h4>Network.NAFSA</h4> Network.NAFSA enables international educators to engage, collaborate, and learn from each other online. Members and nonmembers can connect with communities of professional or personal interest, communicate with others in the field, and share professional resources. Explore Network.NAFSA	<h4>Professional Networks</h4> NAFSA has five Knowledge Communities encompassing a range of competency areas and supporting eleven online professional networks. Find Your Community	<h4>Member Interest Groups</h4> Member Interest Groups (MIGs) unite members and nonmembers that have common interests, similar professional and personal experiences, and those working in similar types of institutions. Learn More
