

NAFSA RISE Fellowship

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Fellow understands that, as part of the NAFSA RISE FELLOWSHIP, the Fellow agrees to a two-year commitment, as follows:

In year one:

Once accepted, comply with all learning requirements of the NAFSA Academy for International Education, including but not limited to the following:

- Join and fully integrate into the designated cohort and the larger NAFSA Academy class
- Regularly engage with coach, cohort, and other Academy trainees, and the NAFSA Professional Learning Services (PLS) staff as outlined in the Academy program timeline (frequency to be determined in curriculum)

In year two:

- Execute an individual learning plan to positively impact the Fellow's institution, campus and/or community
- Commit to hosting a NAFSA Training, in coordination with NAFSA's PLS team
- Share knowledge, value, and skills gained during the RISE Fellowship with NAFSA's Publications team and agree to be featured in one of NAFSA's electronic or written publications
- Participate in quarterly virtual meetings with NAFSA staff and member leaders
- Engage in volunteer leadership positions with NAFSA
- Actively promote the Fellowship program to future candidates, guided by the PLS team

If the fellow fails to comply with these terms and conditions, NAFSA may, at its sole discretion, terminate the Fellow's participation in the RISE Fellowship.

In the event the Fellow is terminated from the program, the Fellow may be required to reimburse NAFSA for the program costs of the fellowship, currently estimated at six thousand dollars ($6000.00).
